

The New Standard in Montessori Early Learning. It's Spelled A-M-C.

Montessori Early Learning promotes self-paced, independent learning by creating a sensory-rich environment. It uses hands-on experiences to focus on four areas of development: Practical Life, Sensorial, Math and English.

THE NEW MONTESSORI STANDARD

At American Montessori Campus, we want to motivate each child to become an independent, life-long learner. We accomplish this by stimulating physical, emotional and intellectual growth, supporting the development of a positive self-image and fostering creativity.

But we are much more than just another Montessori school. By adhering to only the highest standards for our materials, our campus and our services, we feel that we are bringing a new level of early learning to the North Dallas community.

We use only the highest-quality Montessori materials for a child's development.

OUR MATERIALS

Every Montessori school must adhere to a standard curriculum. But, within those requirements, there are several levels of quality. AMC uses only the highest-quality Montessori materials for a child's development. From the educational materials to the artistic tools to the books, we don't cut any corners.

OUR CAMPUS

AMC is conveniently located at 6529 West Plano Parkway. Our 11,500 square foot campus includes a 2000 square foot indoor gym, a garden, a computer room and a music room. Classes include dance, gymnastics, sports and Spanish.

In addition, every one of our teachers has been certified by either the American Montessori Society (AMS) or the American Montessori Institute (AMI).

All this gives our students endless opportunities to learn and grow.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

AMC offers parents a higher level of convenience through our Cozy Care Services. We have pediatrician services on campus and parents can feel confident that unexpected ailments and emergencies are being addressed while they are at work. We care for kids suffering from minor illnesses under
